NARBETT GIVEN REBUKE

38 BUILDERS PROTEST TO BOARD

Refuse to Work If He Is Given Contract to Design or Supervise Erection of New Schools.

MATTER IS TAKEN UNDER CONSIDERATION BY BOARD

Protestants Cite Reasons for Action and Ask That Educational Body See Richmondites Get the Jobs.

Thirty-eight contractors and builders of Richmond sent in a protest to the Board of Education last evening, asking that James T. Narbett, architect, be refused the work of designing the proposed school buildings, to be erected with the money voted at the recent bond election.

The $150,000 issue was passed on January 31 and the board is now getting ready to start work. The petitioners state they do not want to work under Narbett in any capacity on account of the manner in which he conducts work under his supervision.

The board took no action on the letter last evening, as the time is not ripe for it, but it is understood that it will be acted upon favorably. Many of the builders and contractors declared last evening that Narbett had made himself obnoxious to the men because of his methods of dealing with them and accosting them.

THE PETITION.

"Gentlemen: We the undersigned, all being residents of the city of Richmond and engaged in the building business in various ways, have had it brought to our attention that your honorable body is contemplating the employment of one James T. Narbett, either in the capacity of designer or supervising architect, or both, of the school building proposed to be done in this city, do respectfully request your honorable body not to employ the aforesaid architect in any capacity whatsoever.

The reason being, that we the undersigned, desire to bid on the work of erecting said buildings and do not care to do work under the said James T. Narbett in any capacity, owing to the unsatisfactory manner in which he conducts work under his supervision."

THOSE WHO SIGNED.

The signers were C. H. Brown, Zeb Knott, J. T. Barker, Harlie Deici, E. J. Woods, J. N. Gates, John Burkley, O. J. Dahl, William M. Pennington, F. H. Eggerth, M. Hassey, T. C. VOTES CAST UNTIL MORN

Twenty-seven separate ballots were taken last night by the local order of Native Sons in trying to select the second delegate for the Grand Parlor of the lodge, to be held in Los Angeles next April, yet the lodge was unable to select the delegate. At the end of three hours of steady balloting and speech making, when it was found that none of the three canddates—Bob C. Irwn, F. C. Patterson and W. J. Lane—could be accorded the needed majority, the meeting adjourned until next Monday night.

A special meeting has been called for next Monday night in Bank Hall, at which the balloting will be resumed.

Last night's deadlock over the election of one of the delegates was not unexpected. Each one of the three men who stayed in the race last night has a large number of friends, and these friends conscientiously stayed with them until it was found that no decision could be reached at that meeting, and that adjournment was a necessity if those present were to get any sleep.

First one, and then the other of the three would be in the lead, but not far enough ahead to gain the coveted delegateship.

In anticipation of the verbal fireworks and the close contests, nearly every member of the lodge was in attendance.

I. S. Pearce was elected a delegate on the first ballot, and from then on the battle between the three aspirants was waged.

Two candidates were inducted into the order at the meeting. They were M. G. Coats nad Nat Wells Mallory.

RESORTS FIGURES IN LIMELIGHT AGAIN

By paying the sum of $25 to cover damages that had been caused by them when they were refused admittance to the notorious "white house," conducted by Jeane Martin, who recently took out a hotel keeper's permit, four local young men in the employ of the Standard Oil Company escaped prosecution at the hands of the irate landlady.

From reliable sources the information has been gleaned that last Saturday night the four young men, whose identity the police have not disclosed, but who on the other hand have kept the affair a profound secret, in a maudlin, drunken condition attmpted to gain admittance to the house, and when this was refused they attempted to force their way in. They roughly treated the girl who answered the door, with the result that the door was slammed in their faces.

When they were leaving the premises they broke down the front gate. The police hearing of the incident, started on a hunt for the young men, and found them near the Santa Fe depot.

They were taken to the police station. It is stated that the Martin woman did not want to swear out a complaint and the young men, seeing a loophole through which to escape prosecution, paid for the amount of damage they inflicted, which was $25.

PEDERSON GIVEN CLEAR BILL BY JURY

It took but seven minutes yesterday for a jury, sitting in the Superior Court, to acquit John Pederson of Stege of the charge of grand larceny. Pederson was charged by Mrs. H. Fallon with the theft of a horse. He was defended by Attorney T. D. Johnston.

The witnesses showed that Mrs. Fallon had turned the horse out to die and that Pederson picked it up and turned it over to John Stump of San Pablo, who gave it medical treatment and proper food, with the result that it again became valuable.

When the horse showed signs of life again Stump began to drive it and then Mrs. Falion stepped an and wanted it returned to her. This request being refused, she began criminal action against Pederson.

On April 26 the local Odd Fellows will attend a cornerstone laying in Oakland. The Oakland lodges will at that time celebrate the opening of their new $50,000 home at Eleventh and Franklin streets.

Pool Hall Man Is In Favor of Crusade

"We are with the Ministers' Union and the Richmond Women's Club in the proposed crusade against road houses, where girls and boys of tender years are allowed to obtain liquor. Speaking for myself," said H. G. Hill, proprietor of a local pool hall, yesterday. "If any instance comes to light in which any girls and boys under the legal age are served drinks I will myself swear out a warrant for the arrest of the offending parties. It is my belief that every institution and pleasure resort patronized by the public should be conducted along such clean lines that none can say anything derogatory about the places."

In the above terms, Hill, speaking for himself and a number of the other pool room proprietors, declared his willingness to aid the ministers and the women in the reform measures that many think are an absolute necessity at this time.

Hill also commended the stand taken by the News in its willingness to air both sides of the case.

EXCHANGE IS NOW A FACT

Contractors and Builders of City Perfect Organization--Appoint By-Laws and Hall Committee

Richmond will have a Builders' Exchange and from every indication a Builders' Exchange that will be a credit to the city and a big factor in the development of Richmond. Last night thirty local builders and contractors gathered in Sequoia Hall and went over the proposition thoroughly, with the result that it was unanimously decided that a Builders' Exchange was a necessity. Plans are now past the tentative stage.

Last night two important committees were appointed—one to draft a set of by-laws and the other to secure a regular place of meeting and headquarters for the exchange.

It was the concensus of opinion that the exchange have a secretary, who should receive a good remuneration, and who would be a man capable of pleading the cause of the exchange before the Trades Council or the City Council, or anywhere else where his services might be needed.

Three men prominently identified with builders' exchanges in San Francisco were present nad addressed the meeting. Thye were P. F. Bradhofi, secretary of the Oakland Builders' Exchange; L. C. Fraser of San Francisco were present and addressed the Northwestern Surety Insurance Company, and F. T. Kennedy, a big Oakland contractor.

The committee appointed last night to draft and present a set of by-laws at the meeting to be held next Wednesday night, is composed of Messrs. Shellhorse, Handley, Johnson, Pinger and Burton. The committee appointed to arrange for headquarters for the exchange is Messrs. Brown, Marshall nad Overa.

The object of the contractors and builders of Richmond in forming the exchange is to insure a superior class of buildings in Richmond, to guarantee owners better satisfaction and more results for their money, and to keep money that goes out of Richmond through the agency of outside contractors in the city.

The meeting next Wednesday night will be held in Sequoia Hall.

MRS. WOODS BETTER.

Mrs. E. V. Woods, sister of Mrs. Ada Tcherassy, who was stricken with paralysis at her Larkspur home Monday, was last evening reported much improved. Her quick recovery was really wonderful and Mrs. Tcherassy will probably return to her duties here today.

WORK PROCEEDING ON STEGE SEWER SYSTEM

Work is now well under way on the Stege sanitary sewer district. The job is an immense one, involving $40,000, and the next few months will find the Pullman and Stege streets busy scenes of action. Yesterday the 150 horse-power catepillar ditch digger was cutting a trench 15 feet deep on Twenty-third street, which will carry the main sewer to the bay. The pipes being laid along this street are two feet in diameter and are the largest in the district.

THREE MASS MEETINGS TO CLOSE RECALL FIGHT

Three big mass meetings will formally close the recall battle. The first of these will be held this evening in the Lincoln school autitorium, and Franklin Hichborn and Dr. Burke will speak. The second takes place on Saturday and will be in the interests of R. Leonhart, the Socialist candidate. The third will be a general open air meeting and will take place Monday night at the corner of Seventh street and Macdonald avenue.

Andrew Gallagher and Frank McDonald of San Francisco will speak on Monday night. Mrs. Margaret Moore is scheduled to be the chief speaker on Saturday.

In a fiery speech in Walnut Creek a few days ago, Mrs. C. R. Leech, president of the Walnut Creek Improvement Club, called upon the women voters of her city to go to the polls and vote "Yes" for the recall of Owens. Sixty women pledged themselves to do so.

It is amusing to note the character of literature which Owens and his crew are sending out. Eluding the clear-cut issue and endeavoring to sway the public's mind from the facts by asserting that the taxpayers will be burdened by the special election, the crowd is still keeping up the dodging tactics which it has portrayed from the beginning.

The city of Richmond does not have to stand the expense. Any voter knows this fact, and even if it did, does not the cause justify any expenditure? Should a man who is admittedly inefficient and dangerous be kept in public office because a few dollars must be expended?

TENTH STREET DISPUTE IS AIRED IN COUNCIL

Property values along Tenth street in the neighborhood of Cutting boulevard vary considerably, according to the testimony introduced at the hearing of protests against assessments and damages for the widening of the southerly portion of that thoroughfare. The council heard the protestants last evening.

It was stated that the 25-foot corner of Tenth street and Macdonald avenue was assessed for $500 and that an offer of $20,000 for the same lot and the three adjoining ones was refused on February 6 by C. J. Geraghty, the owner. Mrs. Tessie Shipman, a heavy investor in Richmond realty, testified that she considered the corner worth at least $7500.

Councilman Follett in a long question endeavored to secure an admission from Mrs. Shipman that if Tenth street was not widened and the Southern Pacific failed to use its franchise on Cutting boulevard and a few other almost impossible conditions came to pass that the corner would not be worth so much.

Mrs. Shipman replied that if a panic occurred in the United States and things went generally to smash, it was quite likely that real estate values the country over would suffer a severe shrinkage.

C. Osborne, 934 Main street, and C. Fulton, 318 South Tenth street, both represented by Attorney C. J. Wildgrube, appeared to protest against the amount of damages allowed them for the 12½ feet to be taken in the widening of South Tenth street.

A. Everett Ball, an attorney from the metropolis, appeared for C. J. Geraghty and after much talk and several unimportant speeches the matter was referred back to the street commissioners, Mergenthal, Ford and Brooks, and they will try and come to an understanding with the protestants.

Property owners assert that they have placed too high values on the benefits to be derived from the proposed widening and too low a price for land taken.

THE NET-CONTAINER LAW

Very few people realize we believe that on April first one of the most important laws passed by the last legislature will go into effect, it is known as the Net-container bill and provides that every article manufactured in this state, or boxed or crated in this state, which is placed in a wrapper of some kind shall have on that wrapper the net contents marked. For instaance, when you buy a bottle of soda water the bottle shall tell you what quantity of soda water you are getting. If you buy a bottle of medicine or wine the same thing is true. If the article comes in a box or can it shall tell you on the outside exactly what you are getting.

Senator Boynton, who is the author of the bill has fought for its passage for several sessions and only by a hard fought battle got it through the last session. The result is that in future California buyers will know what they are buying, and the petty frauds that are going on all over the state will be stopped.

To illustrate some of the little grafts that have been in progress it is said that a certain well known confectioner in one of the large cities of the state sells fourteen ounces for a pound and has done so for years. It is easy to see that his profit on that fraud alone is large, if he does any considerable business. In many cases it is said that wine bottles and other bottles for liquid have very high bottoms which defraud the purchasers who suppose they are buying pints or quarts whereas they are buying much less. In a word the reforms that the Boynton bill will carry out will be so far reaching that there will not be a household that will not benefit by it. Underweight butter, underweight meat and other articles are of such general use that few persons realize that they are being swindled

The Boynton law is framed along the lines of a federal law with which we are all now more or less familiar and which requires not only the net contents of a package but the ingredients from which the article, if it is food, is made, to be marked on the cover.

Every person interested—and that means everybody in the state—can bring an action against any one selling goods that are not labeled as they should be under the Boynton law. All that is necessary to do is to call the attention of the District Attorney and swear out a complaint as in any other misdemeanor case and the matter must be prosecuted as any midemeanor is prosecuted. The law applies to bread as well as all other commodities of that nature.

In San Francisco for some time an inspection of weights and measures has been in progress and the collection of scales, and other measures, that have been confiscated is said to be enormous and even startling. The amount that the people have been defrauded out of has been very great and it has been found that no business and no class are exempt from having some who have been underweighing, or undermeasuring what they were selling. The well known case of the Western Fuel Company which has resulted in the conviction of three of its officials is a notorious ccase in point, but the fuel company has only been a wholesale dealer in dishonesty while others have to the extent of their ability been just as bad. The investigation, however, of weights and measures has only been a San Francisco enterprise. It has not been state wide, but the Boynton bill will have practically the effect of very largely producing the same results all over the state, as the confiscation of the machines for weighing has had in San Francisco.

The Boynton bill is another progressive measure that is to be credited to the last Legislature, which did so much to make California one of the leading states in the Union.

AN INJUSTICE TO JUDGES.

As the News announced last Saturday, Judge Barber of Shasta county is helping out Judge Latimer at Martinez this week. The court calendar was so crowded that it required the services of an extra judge to get it clear within a reasonable time The plan now adopted is to shift the judges from one county to another as they are needed, instead of appointing extra judges for the counties and thus greatly enlarge the judiciary and the expenses of the state.

The idea is an excellent one, and we have nothing but words of commendation for the idea. In fact, we have never believed that all the extra judges appointed for San Francisco and Los Angeles, not to mention the smaller counties, were needed, and as the state pays half the salaries of the judges, the state is thus paying more than it should for the extra and unnecessary judges.

But while the number of judges should be kept down to the lowest possible number, and the counties like Alpine, that do not need a judge once in a decade, should not have any judge at all, the judges should all get the same salary if they are to perform the same work. Why should Judge Barber, to bring the matter home to our readers, get only $4000 a year for doing the same work that Judge Latimer gets $5000? If Judge Barber is competent to do the work of Judge Latimer, and is doing it, why should he not receive the same compensation?

The injustice in this case is not so apparent as it is in the case when the judge comes from some one of the country counties and goes to Los Angeles or San Francisco, where the salaries of the judges are $6000. The bench there is continually filled with jjudges who do all the work and do it well for from one to three thousand dollars less per year. Either the city judges are getting too much, or the country judges are getting too little. The fact is that all judicial salaries should be paid by the state, and should be uniform and the judges should be sent wherever wanted. It would do the city judges good to get out in the country where the people are more virtuous, and lead cleaner lives; where the cases are not so complicated, possibly, but still require good knowledge of law, and where the clear ozone would enter the judicial lungs. The country judges get a chance to visit the cities and it does them good, but the city judiciary are never sent back in return. Why?

PRAISE WHERE PRAISE IS DUE.

In their letter commending Mayor Ludewig for the stand he has taken on public questions involving the improvement and betterment of Richmond morally and economically, the Richmond Club said:

"We feel that too often while the official who makes mistakes or does a dishonest thing is abused on all sides, the man who makes a stand for fairness and morality is not given one word of praise."

The person who penned those lines, and the club which subscribed to them, touched on a very important and great truth, which has not a little to do with the failure of public officials to be as careful of their duties as they should be. The abuse of public officials is carried, as a rule, entirely too far, and is often unjustified, but when adverse criticism is due it should be given without fear or favor, and should be clear and to the point, while where praise is due it should be as promptly and cheerfully given.

Take, for instance, two cases that the public of Richmond have before them today: On the one hand they have in Senator Owens a man who has admittedly broken his pledges, who has violated his promises, and who is conspicuous as a legislator not by his fidelity and care for his constituents, but by remaining away from over seven hundred roll calls, and then voting against the wishes of his constituents, his pledged word, and the welfare of the poorer people and the respectable element among his constituents. On the other hand, there is Mayor Ludewig, who has called attention to the prevalence of vice in our midst, who deplores the inefficiency of our system of government, and who is making a splendid record for efficiency and interest in the public welfare. No seven hundred roll calls dodged by O. R. Ludewig, no crushing of the poor to favor a few rich, no abuse and appeals to Barbary Coast; no record that calls for Biblical quotations and comparisons to adultresses in his case, no pleas that he is a good fellow and should be given a chance to go and sin no more. No voting to make working women stand at their work bench until they fall down with fatigue; no raising of class prejudices, no efforts to bolster himself up with paid press notices, no denunciation of laboring people as all that is undesirable. In a word, no sacrificing of the public interests by carelessness, neglect, or positive opposition to please a few other good fellows.

THE MINISTERIAL UNION

The announcement that the clergy of Richmond propose to begin active work to improve its moral conditions is another evidence that the city is entering upon a new era, one in which she will take her place among the communities that attract because of their good influences, and strickly moral surroundings. It is an unfortunate fact, but one that no one will dispute, that those who earn their money by the hardest work are often the most ready to part with it, and so well has that tendency been recognized that laws are especially made to protect the wage earner and to help him from losing what he has acquired by so much exertion.

At one time it was thought that the wasting of money in a community meant prosperity. Extravagance was endorsed because it kept money in circulation, and a roulette wheel whirling merrily in every block meant that the town was on the apex of prosperity. But bitter experience has taught that that theory is not correct and that while a puritanical atmosphere is not needed by any means there is a vast difference—a difference in which lies real success and happiness between the Sabbath of the Puritan and the Sunday of the mining camp. The towns which are too wide open generally experience a reversion of public feeling and the lid is placed on so firmly that almost all amusements are stopped. What we want in Richmond is a town in which morality, good order and decency are carefully preserved and which will present a desirable home to all who are seeking a place of residence, in which there will not be innumerable temptations for the young, and pitfalls for the old and in which the laws of the state will be respected. We can have just that style of town if we go at it reasonably, and insist on the observance of law ond order.

The ministers propose to see that the laws are observed and that Richmond shall be made a model city, to that program the only people who can object are those who are helping to make it immoral, and their views cannot and do not receive the endorsement of the vast majority of Richmond's citizens.

LIGHTING THE CITY.

Richmond is to have a number of new arc lights. How much better it would be to discuss the advisability of changing that system into electroliers. Arc lights have had their day and are no longer to be seen in up-to-date towns. In all the smaller towns, even, of the state, arches, electroliers, or some special system of lighting is in vogue. There is not a town of the size of this which is more poorly lighted, and yet as there is so much open territory here and the town spreads over a vast area, there is all the more need of a thorough system of lighting.

If the council were to consult with the electric light authorities, no doubt they would be able to reach an agreement that would be a greatly improved system and a reduction in cost. Marysville, which is not one-third the size of Richmond, and which is compact and small in area even then, has arches across its principal streets. The rate given for the lights is so low that the arches do not cost the town $2 a night each, and yet they add enormously to the attractiveness of the city. Why cannot Richmond have something that would be an equally good advertisement for her? The streets here as a rule, especially Macdonald avenue, are too wide for arches, but electroliers are always pretty and do not cost much. Remember next, in fact in less than nine months, the visitors to the Exposition will begin to arrive, ad when they do this city should be made to look as attractive both by day and night as possible.

It is said that there are $50,000,000 behind the baseball clubs in this country. That shows how clean sport will attract even money makers who care nothing for morality.

LOCAL DIVINES ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

Reaching the decision to first completely organize and elect their officers for the ensuing term, the Ministers' Union of Richmond, composed of all the pastors of Protestant churches in the city, delayed action on the plan to start the campaign against vice and gambling in Richmond. Although the proposed crusade came in for some discussion, no action was taken, as the time of the body was completely occupied with the election of officers and routine affairs. But, as told in the News, the ministers are determined to clean up the city, and members of the union stated last night that action would undoubtedly be taken at the next regular meeting to be held during the first week in April.

The officers elected yesterday morning were: Rev. W. S. Skinner, president; Rev. Guy A. White, secretary, and S. K. Skinner, treasurer. The incumbency of the new officers became effective immediately upon their election.

SPECIAL OFFICER EXTINGUISHES FLAMES

Single handed, Special Officer Mahnke extinguished what might have proved a disastrous blaze, which started in the rear of Mayor Ludewig's butcher shop at an early hour yesterday morning. Two barrels lying in the rear of the shop were ignited by cinders from a nearby boiler, and were blazing merrily when noticed by Mahnke. With rare presence of mind, Mahnke did not waste time turning in an alarm, quickly seeing that he could quench the flames before a serious conflagration was started.

SUNDAY SCHOOL IS FORMED ON WEST SIDE

The organization of the second Presbyterian Sunday School was effected recently at a meeting held in Barnaman Hall on the west side. The following officers were elected: Fred R. James, superintendent; Fred Huenchild, assistant superintendent; Jessie Lee Kittle, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Huenchild, Mrs. W. H. Smith and Mrs. Kittle have been appointed as a committee to do visiting in the neighborhood near the Sunday school.

EAGLES LAYING PLANS FOR PICNIC

The Point Richmond Aerie of Eagles is now making plans for the annual picnic and outing, which will be given at East Shore Park on August 9. From tentative plans that have been made the affair will last from early morning until late at night. There will be dancing and athletic games. The regular picnic concessions will be in charge of the members of the lodge.

CAN YOU TELL A DRUNK BY HIS SNORING?

Can you tell a drunk by his snore? Officer Joe Munday has a negative answer. Munday arrested a man Tuesday giving the name of Joseph Smith. He seemed "polluted." Munday put him on the car to take him to the police station.

The captive fell into merry slumberland, apparently, as soon as the car started. Munday espied a lady friend. He went to the front of the car to converse and Mr. Smith took French leave of the omnibus. It mas three blocks further on that Munday found out his prisoner was gone.

He jerked the rope, stopped the car, jumped into a passing automobile and captured the man just as he was rounding First street and Bissell avenue with the muffler wide open. "He was snoring when I left him," stated Munday.

ENDORSE MRS. SMITH FOR TRUSTEE

Mrs. Kate Smith, well known local woman, is the candidate of the Progressive Club of the annexed district for the position of high school trustee. At a meeting of the club, held Tuesday night, it was decided that the need of a woman trustee was apparent, and accordingly a committee consisting of Mrs. Mary Brown, Miss Minnie Dohrman and Miss Grace Meindersee was appointed to confer with members of the Richmond Club to determine who the candidate shall be.

It was decided yesterday that Mrs. Smith would be the candidate of the club. Members of the Richmond Club and other local civic organizations, it is understood, will endorse Mrs. Smith's candidacy.

The election will be held on Friday, April 3.

STANDING WATER IS CAUSE OF COMPLAINT

Sanitary conditions in the annexed portion of the city of Richmond will be investigated by a committee composed of Clifford Holland, John Bedford and A. J. Meindersee, which has been appointed by the Progressive Club. Considerable standing water in that section has aroused complaint and the committee will make an exhaustive investigation, and will compile a report on the result of the conditions that they find.

At the next meeting of the Progressive Club on April 3 it is proposed to give an entertainment and social. The male members of the club will be in charge of the program.

The committee on arrangements which has bene appointed is E. Canner, C. Randall, John Russell, Mr. Dohrman and J. Bedford.

MATRONS TO ENTERTAIN.

The smart set of the west side will again convene today, when Mrs. Earl Scofield and Mrs. William Lucas entertain their friends at the latter's home.

Lilly bridge will be the diversion of the function and with a fine program and dainty refreshments a most enjoyable afternoon will undoubtedly be whiled away.

GAVE GRIP AWAY AND ARREST IS THE RESULT

All patrolmen were handed keys to the police boxes last night and to Officer Phil Barry falls the distinction of being the first officer to use the boxes. At an early hour last evening an officer was wanted at Seventeenth and Macdonald avenue.

The red light in the center of the street was thrown on and in thirteen seconds the police board buzzed and Barry answered. eH was told to go to a saloon near the subway. There he met Attorney Opsahl. The lawyer informed him that two young men had just presented him (Opsahl) with a grip.

Barry looked into it and found some underwear and an Eagle watch charm and a card case with receipts from the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Opsahl informed Barry that the two men who handed him the grip were going to leave on the next train to Portland.

Barry immediately proceeded to the Southern Pacific depot and picked up J. Welsh and Joseph Trepid, who stated they were new arrivals here. When they were taken back to the saloon and confronted with the contents of the grip and shown the receipts from the Eagles, which were made out to Edward Baggerley, they admitted that neither had that name and failed to explain their motive for giving away such valuable articles. They were both locked up for investigation.

Baggerley, it is said, is employed on a steamer plying between Honolulu and San Francisco. He is said to have known Welsh and trusted him with the grip. The police will try and get in touch with Baggerley today.

A large class of "queer fellows" will be initiated into the Twilight lodge of the west side on April 15. when the Eclipse lodge of the east side will put on the degree and drill work.

PAINTING AND PAPERING.

Do you know we are giving you the profit made on paper. Say a 25-cent paper we give you for 12½. Why? Because we don't pay any store rent. We have sample books from one of the leading wall paper firms in San Francisco. Select your paper one day, get it the next. All we want is to hang your paper. Now figure with us. You will be surprised the saving. Just imagine the money made on wall paper. You get this. We paint also. Guarantee to mix all paint on job; use nothing but lead and oil or Acme prepared paints. We run no coal oil wagon. Mr. Contractor, think this over. Your reputation is at stake. If your painting fails in say a year's time. Bad isn't it? Now whether we get your business or not, demand your paint to be of pure lead and oil or some good standard paint and same to be mixed on job. Mr. Property Owner, pay attention.

We have a first-class sign shop in connection. For estimates call for W. E. Walker or A. B. Connor, at SQUARE DEAL HARDWARE CO. 315 Macdonald ave. Phone 286.

IN THE SOCIAL WHIRL

FRIENDS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY.

In honor of the tenth birthday of Howard Faulkner of 102 Fifth street, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Faulkner, a number of the lad's friends gathered at the home Tuesday night. The evening was spent in games. Those prsent were Anna Towers, Lillian Curtis, Charles Luster, Gladys Cheurant, Katherine Bargsman, Ada Curtis, Gladys Champion, Warren Innes, Robert Kennedy, Lloyd Taylor, Leonard Rowland, Isabel Vargas, Fred Champion, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Petillon, W. F. Petillon and Mrs. S. A. Mann.

JOLLY WHIST PARTY.

Quite a large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Forwick, 864 Fourth street, dropped in upon them Tuesday night and tendered them a pleasant surprise. The evening was spent in playing whist and of course you all know the traits of the German—they had plenty to eat. The evening was full of fun.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dorsdewigs, Misses Amelia and Rosa Dorsdewigs, Mr. and Mrs. Evans and daughter Bertha, Mrs. E. Pipper and daughter, Miss Agnes, Mr. and Mrs. Wermer, Mr. and Mrs. Penning, Mr. and Mrs. Ludewig, John Herman, Mrs. Drasch, Miss Alma Drasch, A. Nelson, James Heus, Mrs. Walder, Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz and son.

SEQUOIA CLUB BALL.

Members of the Sequoia Commercial Club are making arrangements for the big masque ball which they will give to the members and prospective members and their families in Sequoia Hall next Saturday evening. It is to be an April Fool affair and the very best music will be on hand.

The committee in charge of the affair consists of C. J. Crary, W. A. Lucas, F. C. Newton, J. T. Narbett and F. A. Pinger. Costumes can be procured at the hall.

FORESTERS MEET.

The regular business meeting of the local Order of Foresters was held last night in A. O. U. W. Hall. Routine business was transacted.

SURPRISE MRS. LINNELL.

When she returned early last night from a trip to Oakland, Mrs. C. A. Linnell found a merry throng of visitors in her home at 531 Twelfth street. The visitors had gathered to surprise Mrs. Linnell, whose birthday was yesterday.

An elaborate supper had been prepared and the dining room was prettily and tastefully decorated. The evening was spent in whist.

The list of those present included Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Woodward, William Helm, W. M. Timmons, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Linnell, Miss Florice Linnell, Mr. and Mrs. Whittlesey, Master Fred Whittlesey, Miss Madeline Whittlesey, Frances Linnell and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Linnell.

IS DELIGHTFUL FUNCTION

Whist was again the drawing card that resulted in the gathering of a large crowd last night at Pythian Castle. The occasion was the party given by the local order of Pocahontas. The spacious room was well filled with whist players, who matched their skill until a late hour. The evening was one of enjoyment long to be remembered. So successful was the party that the Pocahontas is planning to give another one in the near future.

The committee that arranged for the affair was composed of Leon Michel, W. H. Miller and Mrs. Clara Barry.

Dancing concluded the evening.

LIBEL CHARGES TO GO OVER AWHILE

That the charges of libel preferred by Paul Scharrenberg against Senator James C. Owens and the accusations of reported forgeries to the recall petitions will keep until after the recall election next Tuesday is the opinion of District Attorney A. B. McKenzie, who declines to make himself a party to either side in the present controversy and who has so written both Scharrenberg and Owens, to the effect that nothing further will be done by him in either of these matters until after the election.

This decision was announced by McKenzie Wednesday after he had been importuned by Scharrenberg to take immediate steps in his accusations of libel against Senator Owens.

"These matters will keep very nicely," said the district attorney, "and if the principals desire to prosecute after the election, when neither side can make capital of the fact, then I shall investigate more fully."

BASEBALL YARNS SCRIBBLED BY "FANATIC"

The First street grounds will be the scene of another hot session on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. For at that time teams made up of boilermakers and lead burners of the Standard Oil Company will clash and attempt to prove superiority in an exemplification of how the great national pastime should be played.

Both clubs seem to be confident of victory, and can see nothing ahead but a win. Brown and Offer will be the battery for the lead burners. Offer will be remembered by local fans as the speedy receiver who cavorted in a Richmond uniform last season. The lineups of both teams will be announced later.

"Mickey" Childs' ball playing ability will bring him real money this summer. Childs is to get $20 a game for playing on the Colusa Club in the Trolley League. Beside this the Colusa management will probably land him a job. Total the amount he will get from a job and the amount he is to receive for ball playing, and Childs should be able to gather enough iron boys to live on.

The Colusa sporting writers are expecting great things of Cutey Cunningham, the speedy little outgelder, who is going back to that club later. Cunningham was one of the best men on the valley club last year. Richmond will feel his loss when he leaves.

On the lineup of the Spokane team, which plays here next Sunday, are a number of ball players well known to Richmond fandom, who have played on teams in the Coast League during the past two seasons. It is not improbable that a couple of scouts will invade Richmond Sunday to pick out the stars on the local lineup. There are several of the boys who without doubt could make good on class B clubs.

FLY QUESTION IS NOW AGITATING THE COUNCIL

Whether it would be cheaper to purchase a number of the fly traps which A. Dunlap invented, or to contract with him to slay the pests at the rate of 5 cents per 1000, is a question with which the health committee of the city board is now tussling.

City Health Officer Blake, who is strongly advocating the plan to corner the flies, believes that the campaign, if conducted by Dunlap, would cost the city $500 or $600. Figuring at 5 cents a thousand, Dunlap would have to corral twelve million flies to earn his money.

The council believes that it would be better for the city to buy traps from Dunlap and distribute them to the various school children, who would be paid at the rate of 5 cents per 1000 for their labors. While this looks very feasible, the question pops up again of who will count the flies, and secondly, who is going to keep watch over the traps to see that the flies bear the Richmond label?

It is a certainty that some kind of a campaign will be inaugurated in the immediate future to corral the flies, as this is the season of the year when they begin to swarm.

LOCAL AUDIENCE HEARS DR. OSTROM

Over a hundred persons gathered in the Wesley Methodist Church yesterday morning at 10 o'clock to hear the address by Rev. Dr. Ostrom, the noted evangelist, who has been holding such successful meetings in Berkeley. The address delivered by the noted orator and divine was one of the most forceful ever heard by a Richmond audience. Too much cannot be said concerning the eloquence of Dr. Ostrom.

The music was another pleasing feature of the evening. Some of the most noted singers in the bay section participated in the services.

The congregation was composed of members of all the Protestant churches, as the meeting was a union affair.

BUSINESS MEN PLAN FINE QUARTERS

Ten business men of this city will have a cosy retreat, where they can eat, sleep and have their recreation. This number of young men of Richmond have rented the Kerby home on Seventh street and they plan to fit it up as bachelors' headquarters should be fitted up.

The ten will probably organize a club. A name has not yet been selected. Those who will compose the new club are Dr. W. Reid, F. J. Dunster, Charles H. Pulse, Harry W. Pulse, John O. Pulse, C. M. Brewer, Charles T. Walker, Larkin Yonce, M. B. Whitney and T. H. De Sap.

WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC PICTURE ATTRACTING ATTENTION OF PUBLIC

One of the leading feature films of the year, one which has attracted attention in all of the larger cities, is to be shown next Saturday evening at the Majestic Theater. The picture is entitled "Traffic in Souls" and relates in detail the trials and tribulations which confront a girl forced to make her way through the world.

It is admitted to be the greatest photo drama in history. There are 6000 feet of film, 700 scenes and 600 people in the play. It took nearly two months to drill the cast previous to the actual taking of the picture and cost the film company in the neighborhood of $10,000.

"Sweet Singer of Popular Songs" is the title under which Dan McGuire appears. Mr. McGuire has a pleasing voice that has won him a secure position among the foremost singers of the vaudeville stage. Don't forget to see the Embree Company of this city in a one-act comedy dramatic playlet, entitled "A Substitute Stenographer." This company

Sunny Jim in a search of a mother, a Vitagraph comedy, is a motion picture with a hearty laugh in every scene. There are four other pictures of merit to be shown, including "How Bobbie Called Her Bluff," an Edison comedy. Relating how an irrepressible younger brother makes life pleasant for his elder sister, who is trying to make a hit with a German count, Bobbie surely proves himself a good mixer in this picture, teaching his sister a cruel lesson, but one that is well learned.

The trial of Thomas Mooney, the first of the three accused dynamiters to stand trial, will begin before either Judge R. H. Latimer or Judge J. E. Barber next Tuesday morning. The following venire of twenty-five talesmen wos drawn Wednesday morning for this trial:

Services were held at the Oakland crematory at Howe and Mather streets. Following the impressive ceremonies the body was given to the flames. A large number of friends of the decedent were present at the last earthly rites.

CROCKETT, March 25.—Standing room was at a premium Tuesday evening when the big recall mass meeting was held in the town hall. It was promptly 8 o'clock when the speaking began, and Michael Doyle started introducing the speakers. The interest started from the beginning of the talk and when Paul Scharrenberg, secretary of the State Federation of Labor, took the stand there was marked applause.

Following the speaking two hundred men pledged themselves to vote for the recall of State Senator James C. Owens. Constable J. J. Fox closed the meeting with the declaration that he would be one of the first to vote "Yes" on March 31.

STREET WIDENING TO COST CITY $5,410

In their report, filed with the city clerk yesterday, Levi Boswell, D. A. Knowles and J. O. Ford, commissioners named on January 5 by the City Council to take up the widening of Tenth street from Barrett avenue north to the Richmond Boulevard tract, assert that total damages to be awarded amount to $4440.73.

There are 110 lots and parcels of land affected, which are assessed for $5410.60. The value of the land to be taken for street purposes is $3436.55, while the damage to improvements is $1004.18. The expenses incurred by the commissioners totaled $969.87.

The commissioners assert that it will cost the property owners about $48 per lot to have the work done.

BONDING FIRM TO TAKE UP MORE OF BONDS

All of the big $1,070,000 tunnel and harbor bonds will pass to E. H. Rollins & Sons. They have already taken the majority of the big issue and have now written the city clerk that they will exercise the option they have on the remainder of the bonds.

The council has directed that the bonds be issued to the firm and on the first of April it will take another $116,000 of them.

MOOSE BRANCH GIVES SECOND DANCE

"Something out of the ordinary" is a good way to characterize the second monthly dance given last night in Bank Hall bf the military branch of the local order of Moose. A large crowd of merry dancers waltzed and two-stepped until a late hour to the melodious strains of music provided by Swartz's orchestra. The hall was prettily decorated in Japanese lanterns, which cast a ruddy glow throughout the place.

Door—Milo Kitchen and Jess Burr.

SCHOOL ELECTION CAUSING MUCH INTEREST

Yesterday H. A. Stiver, agent for the Southern Pacific, came forth with his announcement that he will be in the race for member of the Board of Education. C. B. Evans has already announced his candidacy, so this makes two who have so far signified their intention to try for the place which O. A. Poulsen is now holding.

Poulsen, whose term expires in May, has announced he will not run again. The election is to be held on Saturday, May 2.

The charter provides that the nominations must be made by petition and that the petition shall be filed with the clerk of the Board of Education at least twenty-five days prior to the date fixed for the election. It will, therefore, be necessary that all petitions for nominations be filed in the office of the clerk of the Board of Education at the Lincoln School before midnight of April 7, 1914. Blank petitions may be obtained from the clerk, W. T. Helms, either at his office in the Lincoln school or at his home at 235 Sixth street.

As there were 613 votes cast at the last election, it will require at least 19 valid signatures to secure a nomination.

The charter also provides that if petitions asking for nominations to the number of more than twice the number of officers to be elected at said election are filed, then a primary election shall be held two weeks prior to the day fixed for the election, hence should more than two petitions of nomination be filed it will be necessary to have a primary election on Saturday, April 18.

BIG WHIST PARTY IS ENJOYED BY LODGES

Another of the highly entertaining and very successful joint whist parties for which the lodges are famous will be held by the Twilight Odd Fellows and Zephyr Rebekahs at a date to be decided this week. Charles Madson, Robert Dorman, R. G. Erskine and G. A. Conley are managing the affair.
